Fall 2017 Class Schedule

Schedule revised 8/10/2017

Course Name	Instructor	Course Description
ABOTA	Sampson/ Matthews	Lecture series by experienced and prominent Arkansas trial attorneys, lecturing on case evaluation, jury instructions, witness preparation, scheduling orders, courtroom civility, voir dire, opening statements, direct and cross-examination, objections, and closing arguments.
Administrative Law	Kelley	Administrative law is a foundational course for those who anticipate representing clients directly or indirectly affected by federal agency actions. This covers everyone living in the U.S. and many persons abroad.
Advanced Criminal Practice Clinic	Murphy
Advanced Federal Practice Clinic	Tarvin
Advanced Transactional Clinic	Tarvin
American Legal History	Killenbeck, M.	An examination of major themes in American legal history, with an emphasis on the origins and meaning of the United States Constitution. Various topics will be explored in the light of the original understandings, developments over time, and current interpretations by the courts and the body politic.
Antitrust	Foster, S.	Federal anti-trust laws and their relationship to concentrations of economic power in the contexts of monopoly mergers, price fixing, economic boycotts and discrimination, re-sale price maintenance, dealer franchises, and exclusive dealing. Comparative analysis of free enterprise market and government regulated industries. Recommended for second- and third-year students interested in business practice or government service, as well as social welfare, or students with an interest in the subject.
Appellate Advocacy	Rudofsky
Arbitration	Comstock	This course explores the practical as well as the legal problems presented by the use of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) to resolve disputes, with an emphasis on employment. While other areas of ADR will be touched upon, such as mediation and peer-review, the primary focus of the course will be on arbitration as the means to resolve problems in the workplace and commercial context generally. The course provides instruction and practice (through a variety of simulations) assessing all aspects of arbitration, including when/whether to arbitrate, selecting the arbitrator, conducting an arbitration, and post-hearing issues. Students will become familiar with the most common techniques and strategies that lawyers use in employment arbitration, and should be better prepared to represent your client's interests in that proceeding.
Bankruptcy	Judge Taylor	Study of insolvency law, with particular emphasis on federal bankruptcy law.
Basic Evidence	Bailey	Study of the rules of evidence under which trials are conducted; the methods by which items of evidence are admitted or excluded; relevancy, real evidence, testimonial proof, and hearsay and its exceptions.
Basic Title Examination (First 8 Weeks)	Daily	Basic Title Examination is a course designed to teach students how to examine abstracts of title and other compilations of public real estate records to determine ownership and marketability of surface title. The course utilizes the theoretical understanding gained from traditional substantive law courses including Property and Wills, Trusts, and Estates, but teaches applied practical skills not usually taught in those courses.
Business Organizations	Goforth	Course is constructed around different forms of business organizations, with emphasis on agency and partnership law, and corporation law.
Civil Litigation & Advocacy Clinic	Smith, A.	Students will represent low-income clients seeking to enforce their rights in civil matters. Under close faculty supervision, students will develop and refine their ability to effectively and ethically practice law. Students will handle all aspects of client representation, including interviewing and counseling, fact investigation and discovery, negotiation, and court appearances. Students will also participate in a weekly seminar and may have the opportunity to engage in other forms of advocacy. Prerequisite: Cumulative GPA of 2.00, successful completion of 48 semester hours, including Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, Evidence, and Professional Responsibility, and qualifying for Rule XV practice.
Civil Procedure	Brill & Trammell	Study of the process of civil litigation from preliminary matters such as court selection and jurisdiction, through joinder of parties and discovery techniques, to disposition of cases and finality of judgments. Some attempt is made to cover the antecedents of modern procedure; where appropriate, suggestions for reform are developed in class discussion. Emphasis is on the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
Clinic - Criminal Practice (Skills)	Murphy	The Criminal Practice Clinic represents clients charged with misdemeanor and simple felony charges primarily in Washington County. Under close faculty supervision, students develop their ability to effectively and ethically practice law while providing much-needed legal assistance. In addition to client representation, and court appearances, students participate in a weekly seminar. Qualification for Rule XV practice. Prerequisite: LAWW 6093 Basic Evidence, LAWW 4173 Criminal Procedure, and LAWW 5013 Professional Responsibility.
Clinic - Federal Practice Clinic	Tarvin	Students receive clinical legal experiences in federal courts and before federal administrative agencies. Although the particular experiences vary, Chapter 7 (no asset) bankruptcies and farm foreclosures are often emphasized.

Clinic - Immigration Clinic		Immigration Clinic will provide opportunities for students preparing for a career in immigration law or general practice by developing skills that are critical in legal practice through an experiential learning model. Working under the supervision of a clinical faculty member, students will represent sectors of the immigrant population for graded credit. Criminal Procedure and Professional Responsibility are prerequisites, as well as the completion of at least forty-eight credit hours prior to enrollment. Prerequisite: LAWW 5013 Professional Responsibility.
Clinic -Transactional Clinic	Tarvin	Students receive clinical legal experience counseling and representing non-profit organizations serving Northwest Arkansas in a wide range of non-litigation business law matters. Services include startup, incorporation, obtaining federal and state tax exemptions, change of business form, purchase and lease of real and personal property, employment and labor law issues, and general contract negotiation, drafting and execution. In addition, students prepare and participate as presenters in a workshop on matters of general interest to non-profit organizations. Legal Clinic Faculty supervise and review the student attorney's work, and provide personal feedback to the individual student attorneys.
Conflict of Laws	Trammell	Course is about cross-border disputes and choice-of-law questions. Will touch on circumstances under which one jurisdiction will recognize a judgment from a sister jurisdiction.
Contracts	Mathews & S. Foster	Formation and enforcement by litigation and commercial arbitration of commercial and family agreements. Mutual assent or consideration; third-party beneficiaries; assignments; joint obligation; performance; anticipatory breach; discharge of contractual duties; and the Statute of Frauds.
Corp Social Responsibility (Second 8 Weeks)	Ewelukwa
Criminal Law	Gallini & Sacharoff	Deals with the questions of what conduct society punishes through a criminal code and of the appropriate punishment for the forbidden conduct. In this context the course includes an analysis of the theories of punishment, the definitions of various crimes, the defenses available to one charged with criminal conduct, and the limitations placed by the Constitution on governmental power in the criminal law area. Throughout the course, special emphasis is placed on the legislature's role in creating statutes alongside the judiciary's corresponding role in interpreting those statutes.
Criminal Procedure	Bailey	Concerned with the legal steps through which a criminal proceeding passes, commencing with the initial investigation of a crime and concluding with the release of the defendant. Does not deal exclusively with constitutional problems, although considerable time is spent on them. Recent Supreme Court decisions receive special emphasis. Criminal Procedure does not deal with criminal tactics or with many of the special problems relating to the introduction of evidence at the trial.
Cybercrime	Sacharoff	This course examines the law governing computer crime and the limits on law enforcement surveillance. We consider substantive crimes such as hacking, identity theft, economic espionage, and online threats before we examine the Fourth Amendment, the Wiretap Act, and other limits on law enforcement.
Debtor-Creditor	Beard	Study of Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code and of the remedies of unsecured creditors.
Domestic Relations	Flaccus	Devoted primarily to the problems generated by family relationships. There is a large section on formation and dissolution of marriage. Substantial time is also given to paternity and legitimacy, obligations toward and of children, custody, adoption, guardianship, general property law as it is affected by family relationships, and divorce and custody in the federal system (focusing primarily on enforceability of degrees in one state by courts sitting in another state).
Employment Discrimination	Madison	This course focuses on the study of the significant cases and statutes that protect employees from discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, and disability, with emphasis on Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Final exam will be a take-home exam.
Employment Law	Nance	An overview of the law governing various aspects of the employment relationship, both statutory and common law. Covers the establishment and parameters of employment, the security of the worker, employer's rights, and terminations.
Entertainment Law	Pieper	Examines the legal principles and relationships of the entertainment industry, with a primary emphasis on the music industry; provides an introduction to the practice of entertainment law and the negotiation of entertainment contracts; highlights a variety of legal and practical issues that arise when representing clients in the entertainment industry.
Environmental Law	Gosman	Devoted primarily to the legal problems related to the environment. Included is consideration of environmental impact in public and private decision making.
Equal Protection Seminar	Pollvogt	This seminar is ideal for students who (1) have an interest in further exploring the law of equal protection and (2) want to practice and improve their analytical and writing skills. Specifically, in terms of skills, we will focus on critical reading, mapping the logic of judicial opinions, extracting general principles from a body of precedent, and applying those principles to novel fact patterns. It is important that all students be fully engaged in the class; for this reason enrollment is by professor permission.
Essential Legal Research	Thompson	This course covers the research techniques, books, and databases essential to practicing law. Skills developed include creating a research plan to solve specific practice problems, identifying and locating all of the case law, regulations, and statutes on a question in a jurisdiction and determining their current status through later citation, accessing government documents, assessing what statutes and regulations are in force at a given time, locating or creating legislative histories, locating foreign law, locating international law, determining how best to use treatises, monographs, and journals, and developing elementary skills in finding and utilizing materials and resources from other disciplines, such as medicine, science, or the social sciences.

Federal Income Tax of Individuals	Beard	Fundamentals of the federal income taxation of individuals. Topics covered include gross income, deductions, assignments of income, basis, taxation of property transactions, and tax accounting.
First Amendment	Killenbeck, M.	An intensive examination of the legal issues arising under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, with an emphasis on basic free speech doctrines and the dilemmas posed by interplay between the free exercise and establishment clauses.
Food Law & Policy	Schneider	An introduction to the laws that govern our food system, considering regulation by both the FDA and the USDA and examining current food policy issues. This course is available as a regular face-to-face class or a distance class. Distance students can either participate by video conference or watch class recordings and prepare a weekly written response in addition to other class exercises.
Food, Farming, & Sustainability	Schneider	This course provides a survey of agricultural law and the policy issues presented. This course is available as a regular face-to-face class or a distance class. Distance students can either participate by video conference or watch class recordings and prepare a weekly written response in addition to other class exercises.
Immigration Law	Devenport	A study of the immigration, nationality, and naturalization laws of the United States; discussion of policy issues relating to migration, refugees, asylum, deportation, and citizenship issues. The Course will also explore pop culture references to immigration issues and examine the truths and fallacies of what is presented for entertainment purposes.
Interviewing, Counseling & Negotiation	Circo & Comstock	This course provides instruction and practice in interviewing and counseling clients and in negotiating on behalf of clients in a wide variety of situations. In addition to teaching strategies and techniques, the course will provide extensive practice through the use of simulated exercises. When you complete this course, you should be familiar with the most common interviewing, counseling, and negotiating techniques and strategies, and you should be able to implement those techniques and strategies in many different situations that lawyers face.
Intro to Intellectual Property	Ewelukwa	This course involves an introductory survey of topics in intellectual property, including copyright, trademark, patent, and unfair competition issues. If time permits, the course may also cover certain aspects of e-commerce.
Law and Sexuality	Woods	This course will explore legal issues surrounding sexuality. The course objectives are to: (1) provide an introduction to several different areas of the law involving sexuality and gender identity/expression, and (2) reflect critically on the ways in which the law historically and currently regulates and constructs sexuality and gender. Key areas include: legislation, constitutional law, criminal law, and family law.
Law and Accounting	Norwood	Study of basic accounting principles and their importance to attorneys engaged in business related activities. Topics covered include the fundamental accounting equation, the nature of accrual accounting, understanding financial statements, and accounting for assets and liabilities. Also a review of basic principles associated with financial statement analysis and valuation principles. Intended for students with little or no business training, and may not be taken for credit by students who have previously earned 6 or more hours of undergraduate or graduate credit in accounting courses.
Legal Operations	Abdullah/Bryan	While everyone leaves law school with the ability to Shepardize a case, very few leave with the ability to manage and lead modern law firms and legal departments. In this course you will learn about the operations principles 21st century legal entities are utilizing - and to which they are being held accountable.  Topic will include: Strategic Planning, Financial Management, Vendor Management, Data Analytics, Technology, Change Management, Artificial Intelligence, Outside Counsel Selection and Management, as well as others.  In this course you will have weekly viewing/reading assignments, synopses of those assignments, an emphasis on class engagement, and a final project.
LRW I	A. Killenbeck, A. Hurst, Marshfield, & Weatherby	An introduction to the special problems posed by the legal analysis and the expression of the results of that process. The primary emphasis will be on basic legal analysis techniques, basic legal writing skills, and proper citation form. Students will complete a series of writing assignments.
Natural Resources Law	Gosman	This course examines the laws and policies governing the use of natural resources. Natural resources include forests, water, wildlife, and fisheries, as well as hard rock minerals, coal, and oil and gas. We will discuss who owns these resources, how they are used or managed, and how their use is regulated. The course will also consider the laws governing management of public lands, such as national parks, wilderness areas, and rangelands. Throughout the course, we will examine the values at stake in natural resource use and protection, the conflicts between public and private use, and the challenges inherent in natural resource management. Finally, we will hear from attorneys who work on natural resource issues in Arkansas. There will be an open-book final exam, with an option to write a final paper.
Nonprofit Organizations	Hurst, R.	This course examines issues relating to the organization, operation, governance, and dissolution of various nonprofit entities, including charitable and public benefit corporations. Topics covered include the regulation of charitable contributions and their solicitation, obtaining and protecting tax-exempt status, and political and business activities of nonprofit organizations.
Oil & Gas	Norvell	Study of the law of oil and gas with emphasis on the interests that may be created in oil and gas, the rights of the landowner, provisions in the oil and gas lease, the rights of assignees, and legislation dealing with production and conservation.

Oil & Gas Title Examination (Second 8 Weeks)	Daily	Oil and Gas Title Examination is a course designed to teach students who have successfully completed Basic Title Examination how to use abstracts of title and other compilations of public real estate records to determine ownership and marketability of minerals, including oil and gas, and oil and gas leasehold, royalty, overriding royalty and other similar interests. The course utilizes the theoretical understanding gained from traditional real property and oil and gas law courses, but teach practical skills not currently taught in the usual classroom setting. Prerequisite: Basic Title Examination
Professional Responsibility	Woods	Role of the lawyer as counselor, advocate, and public servant; obligation to society of the individual lawyer and the profession as a whole; ethical problems of the profession; representation of the unpopular cause and the desirable client, lawyers' obligation to law reform; lawyer and the press; the lawyer in public service; the aspects of law office management.
Real Estate Transactions	Circo	Focuses on real estate transfer, real estate finance and real estate development. Issues relating to the sale of land and conveyances of real property, mortgages and the planning, financing, constructing and marketing of modern real estate developments are treated.
Remedies	Brill	Covers equity (jurisdiction and powers of courts of equity, injunctions, including adequacy of legal remedies, balancing of equities, interests protected, and defenses), damages (compensatory, exemplary, and nominal damages; direct and consequential damages; mitigation; special application in contract and tort actions) and restitution (relief afforded by the judicial process, to prevent unjust retention of benefits).
The Right to Food (First 8 Weeks)	Ewelukwa	This course will provide an overview of the historical development of the right to food, evaluate the rights, obligations and responsibilities of rights-holders and duty-bearers of the right to food, and will examine legal and non-legal mechanisms that are increasingly used to adjudicate the right to food.
Trial Advocacy	Bailey & Staff	An introduction to actual trial work and trial techniques through simulated exercises and the conduct of a mock trial.
ULW: Business Drafting	Goforth	ULW-Business Drafting is an advanced writing course that takes students through a number of writing assignments. It is geared at teaching students to produce prescriptive writing, as oppose to predicting how the law would apply or persuading a reader about how the law should apply. This class therefore requires students to use information that they have gained in other classes, notably Business Organizations, and use it in drafting appropriate documents ranging from organizational forms, to documents describing how a business it to be operated, to commercial contracts. Students will also work on professionally communicating with various constituents such as clients and other attorneys about the contents of and rationale behind drafting choices in these documents. Prerequisite Law 4294 Business Organizations.
ULW: Civil Pretrial Docs
ULW: Gender-Based Violence	Avalos	This course explores various forms of gender-based violence in public and private spheres, and examines the relationship between such violence and human rights discourse in both the legal and policy arenas. It considers solutions to gender-based violence including the economic empowerment of women, the education of girls, and others.
ULW: Health Policy	Griffin	This course is designed to provide an introduction to important legal concepts relevant to providing legal assistance to hospitals, doctors, insurance companies, policymakers, and patients. The laws underlying the business of health care will be considered as they apply to hospitals and other health care entities, governance and structure of health care organizations, competition among providers, and health care fraud and abuse.
