

Application Procedure

For International Students LL.M. Program in Agricultural and Food Law University of Arkansas School of Law

International applicants to the LL.M. Program must submit the following:

- 1) A completed International Student Application Form;
- 2) A statement explaining the reasons why the applicant seeks to be admitted and demonstrating an interest in agricultural and/or food law;
- 3) A current resume or curricular vitae;
- 4) Official copies of transcripts from all post-secondary educational institutions attended; transcripts must be sent from the institution directly to the LL.M. Program Administrator and must bear the official seal of the institution and be signed by an official with the institution. An English translation must be appended and similarly sealed and officially signed. Transcripts should explain the school's grading system and indicate academic standing, preferably by class rank or designation of honors achieved. Law transcripts should indicate each subject taken and the academic marks received in each subject.
- 5) Two letters of recommendation sent directly to the LL.M. Program Administrator. It is recommended that at least one letter be from a member of the applicant's law faculty.
- 6) International students whose native language is not English must meet the English proficiency requirements for international admissions set by the University of Arkansas Graduate School and submit English proficiency test results. Additional evidence of language proficiency may be required by the Graduate Legal Studies Committee.
- 7) A completed University of Arkansas Supplemental and Financial Information Form. Each international applicant must provide evidence of available financial support in the form of specific documentation of funds available for transfer to the U.S. to cover each year of study at the University of Arkansas.
