PELHAM, Alabama -- Halfway through the third and final period of Sunday's South Eastern Collegiate Hockey Conference (SECHC) championship game, it appeared that the Alabama Frozen Tide had the first-place trophy all locked up.

Instead, the Razorbacks took advantage of two power plays and scored goals with 8:45 and 6:53 left in the game to defeat the Tide, 2-1.

After a tightly defended first period, Alabama's only score came in the second on a delayed penalty call.

The win gave Arkansas its second consecutive SECHC championship. Alabama will continue its season at the American Collegiate Hockey Association (ACHA) South Regionals tournament, and will await word on a berth in the Division 3 national championships next month in Coral Gables, Florida.

The tournament was held at the Pelham Civic Complex and Ice Arena.

Veteran Julia Mancuso and newcomer Mil Shiffrin lead the strong U.S. group into the women's giant slalom. Could they have success like Andrew Weibrecht and Bode Miller did Sunday?
